“Keynote Address”

*- Hilton Mervis, Partner, McDermott Will & Schulte UK & The National ProBono Centre
Plus “speaker tbc”*

Hilton Mervis has nearly 30 years’ experience of litigating and resolving high-value, complex and multi-jurisdictional disputes. He represents corporations, private equity firms, hedge funds and high-net-worth individuals on a wide variety of disputes and has particular experience in the alternative investment sector, covering private equity and hedge fund litigation, partnership disputes, complex civil fraud, contractual and banking disputes, shareholder and corporate governance disputes, and financial services matters.

Hilton is a solicitor advocate and member of the Commercial Court Users Committee by appointment. He is a founding member and Chair of the London Commercial Litigators’ Forum. He is also the editor of the authoritative text Managing Private Fund Disputes (PEI Media) and of Global Legal Post’s Commercial Litigation Guide.

1000–1040 (inc 5 mins Q&A)

“Speaking about wills of the dead –

paradoxes and challenges of probate professional negligence claims”

- David E Grant KC – Outer Temple Chambers

David E. Grant KC TEP is a chancery and commercial practitioner with specialist expertise in pensions, trusts, will and estates and professional negligence.

He has extensive advocacy experience up to the European Court of Justice and has also attended numerous mediations and round table meetings. David is happy as sole advocate or leading a counsel team and enjoys the process of working with his instructing solicitors, lay clients, insurers, funders, experts and other interested parties.

His clients have included many leading international businesses including British Airways, Lloyds Bank, the Atos Group and BT, leading professional advisers including Aon, Mercer, Barnett Waddingham and Momentum Global Investments, prominent charities and trusts, various statutory bodies as well as high net worth individuals and group claimants.

David has been recommended in a total of 4 areas in Chambers and Partners and the Legal 500 since 2007 and has been described as “absolutely amazing”, a “first rate silk” “a polished advocate with the ear of the court” “a go to practitioner in this area” and “analytical and creative at finding solutions to difficult problems”, “he will do his utmost to find the answer to support the client’s position”.

1040–1120 (inc 5 mins Q&A)

“Claims notification and issue-based costs awards

– the continuing impact of HLB Kidsons v Lloyds Underwriters and Others [2009] Lloyds Rep IR 8 (CA)”

- William Godwin KC – 3 Hare Court

William acts and advises in a wide range of commercial disputes including insurance and commercial professional liability. His cases include acting for a German industrial group in English Commercial Court proceedings arising from an acquisition debt push down involving conflicts of laws, German corporate law and Mexican tax advice, and appearing for the policy-holder accountants against insurers in the landmark decision in HLB Kidsons v Lloyds Underwriters and Others [2009] Lloyds Rep IR 8 (CA). Chambers UK have described him as ‘an outstanding advocate’ and UK Legal 500 as ‘very bright and experienced, providing detailed analysis of issues’.

1120–1140 Refreshments

1140–1220 (inc 5 mins Q&A) "Red Flags and Blind Spots: Professional Negligence in Fraud Cases"

- Andrew Barns-Graham – 3 Hare Court

Andrew Barns-Graham specialises in civil fraud litigation and asset recovery, banking and other commercial disputes, shareholder disputes, and contentious insolvency and trusts.

His related areas of expertise include freezing injunctions, financial disclosure applications and asset tracing, securities fraud, forgery and counterfeiting, breach of confidence, breach of fiduciary duty, the cross-border enforcement of judgments and non-performing loans, jurisdiction challenges, and conflicts of laws.

Andrew has been recognised in the civil fraud category of the legal directories since 2022 and is currently ranked as a leading junior. He has published numerous articles about the subject and is a regular speaker at events.

He has acted in several of the most complex and high-profile cross-border fraud cases of recent years, including three which appeared in The Lawyer's annual 'Top 20 cases'. He also has a wealth of experience acting on smaller matters across the spectrum of civil fraud and commercial litigation.

Andrew prides himself on being a team-player who goes the extra mile for his clients. As well as being a "top drawer" and "very knowledgeable" technical lawyer, he has the ability to see litigation from the perspectives of solicitors and clients, having previously worked in-house in top City litigation practices.

Andrew's hobbies include sport, playing and composing piano music, and civil fraud litigation.

1220–1245 "Professional negligence: what the data tell us"

- Peter Nussey & Andy Butler – Solomonick

Peter has 20 years of experience within the legal technology sector where he has held a number of growth roles and gained extensive experience of scaling pioneering solutions. He spearheads our expansion plans aimed at putting Solomonick at the heart of litigation decision making.

Andy has a history of working in the legal, legal-tech, & SaaS industry. I enjoy bringing solutions to problems.

1245–1415 Lunch – Middle Temple Hall

1415–1445 (inc 5 mins Q&A) "Case Studies of Assignments in Professional Negligence Claims"

- Piers Elliott, Managing Director & Daren Hlaing, Legal Director – Henderson and Jones

Piers is a commercial litigator with over 15 years' experience of complex and high-profile disputes. Piers has a broad commercial practice with particular expertise in advising on financial services and insolvency disputes.

Piers joined Henderson & Jones in September 2019 from Freshfields where Piers spent seven years as a senior associate in the dispute resolution team. During his time at Freshfields, Piers spent six months on secondment to the Litigation and Regulatory Enforcement team at HSBC. Prior to joining Freshfields, Piers spent five years at Mayer Brown.

Piers is admitted as a solicitor in England and Wales. He has a law degree from the University of Birmingham.

Daren is a commercial litigator specialising in insolvency, financial services and professional negligence disputes. Daren has extensive experience of litigation claims in the High Courts of England and Wales and has expertise in insolvency, fraud and asset-tracing.

Daren joined Henderson & Jones in January 2024 from Ernst & Young LLP's in-house counsel team, where he advised the firm's audit and assurance practices. Prior to that, Daren spent 10 years in Freshfields' dispute resolution department where he advised on a range of complex, high-profile matters. Daren is admitted as a solicitor in England and Wales.

1445–1525

"Insolvency and Undervalue claims"

- Elaine Palser & Ahmed Elhusseiny – Outer Temple Chambers

Elaine Palser has an extensive chancery and commercial practice, with an emphasis on contentious trusts and probate, insolvency, commercial disputes and professional negligence.

Ranked as a leading barrister in the Legal 500, Chambers and Partners, and the High Net Worth Guide, the directories describe Elaine as "fiercely bright" and "technically brilliant", with "fantastic analytical skills", "a sharp mind", and "astute intellect". In court, Elaine is "an excellent advocate", "unflappable", "calm and skilled", and "impressive at pulling complicated issues together in a way that impresses a judge". She is also "a real team player" who is "effortlessly charming", "brilliant with clients", and "able to give advice on tricky issues in a language her clients understand". Recommended for Private Wealth and Probate, Professional Negligence, Insolvency, and Traditional Chancery, Elaine is also described in the directories as a "legal gladiator", a "silent assassin" and one of those counsel that "you feel reassured to have on your side".

With degrees in both law and business science, Elaine is uniquely placed to handle the complex commercial and financial issues that arise in all of her practice areas.

Elaine is also a former lecturer in Trusts, Land, and Tort at Oxford University, and a CEDR-accredited mediator who is able to mediate disputes in most areas of law.

Ahmed Elhusseiny practices in commercial litigation, commercial-chancery, and international arbitration.

His experience spans construction, company and shareholder disputes, insolvency, shipping and commodities, civil fraud, partnerships, banking and financial services, and sanctions.

Ahmed has extensive advocacy and witness-handling experience in multi-day trials and heavy applications. He has particular experience being instructed as sole counsel to deal with urgent interlocutory applications such as freezing orders, search orders, and anti-suit injunctions.

A significant portion of his practice centres on international commercial disputes in arbitration and offshore jurisdictions, with a focus on the Middle East. His recent reported cases include Parkman (Trustee in Bankruptcy) v Dabir Ahmed and Ors [2025] EWHC 3500 (Ch) and Re Siobhain Crosbie [2025] EWHC 2917 (Ch).

Ahmed has worked on several matters in international common law courts including the DIFC, ADGM, AIFC, and in offshore jurisdictions including the BVI and Cayman Islands.

He is also admitted as an arbitrator with DIAC and LAMC. He is particularly well-placed to work on dual-language arbitrations as he writes and speaks Arabic fluently.

Ahmed graduated from King's College London top of his class and won a number of academic awards. He then read for the BCL at Oriel College Oxford and undertook the Bar Course at City Law School as Cassel Scholar of Lincoln's Inn, graduating with a distinction.

Before coming to the Bar, Ahmed was Visiting Lecturer at King's College London and Guest Lecturer at LSE. He also interned with the International Arbitration group at Wilmerhale where he assisted with editing and updating Gary Born's International Commercial Arbitration.
